

Zohar (b. Kazakhstan, 1945) is a Classically trained figurative painter whose devotion to the Old Masters of the 17th Century is reflected in his unique meditations upon contemporary human existence and achievement in the 21st century. An alumnus of Bezalel Academy in Jerusalem, Israel, Zohar works and resides in London, England, where he has lived since 1987.

Selected Solo Exhibitions

- 2016 The Edinburgh Gallery – Edinburgh, UK
Solo Exhibition
- 2014 Gallery Elena Shchukina – London, UK
“Past and Future”
- 2013 Gallery Elena Shchukina – London, UK
“Interiors: Variations on a Theme By Vermeer”
- 2011 Real World Gallery – London, UK
- 2003 Spencer Coleman Gallery – Stamford, UK
- 2001 Catto Gallery – London, UK
- 1999 Catto Gallery – London, UK
- 1996 Museum Panorama Mesdag – The Hague, NL
“Reflections: Homage to Vermeer”
- 1989 Roy Miles Gallery – London, UK
- 1987 Musee de L’Athnee – Geneva, CH
- 1980 Sarah Kishon Gallery – Tel Aviv, IL
- 1977 Sarah Kishon Gallery – Tel Aviv, IL
- 1971 Bergman Gallery – Tel Aviv, IL
- 1970 Ahuva Doron Gallery – Tel Aviv, IL

Notable Commissions

- 2006 Portrait of Wallace Browne, Lord Mayor of Belfast (now Lord Browne of Belmont)
- 2005 Group portrait for the High Court of Justice at the Middle Temple
- 1990 Portrait of Rt Hon Henry Catto, American Ambassador to the Court of St. James
- 1990 Portrait of HRH Diana, Princess of Wales